Association of Insurers and Reinsurers of Developing Countries

AIRDC

ORGANIZERS OF THE INSURANCE CONGRESS OF
THE DEVELOPING COUNTRIES
(ICDC)

FORMERLY THE THIRD WORLD
INSURANCE CONGRESS (TWIC)

THE AIRDC

The idea of formally organizing the AIRDC was conceived during the First Third World Insurance Congress (1st TWIC) held in Manila on October 20-25, 1977 where the Philippine Delegation, through the Insurance Institute for Asia and the Pacific (IIAP), submitted an initial draft of the Constitution. The declared policy of the association is to strengthen the insurance markets in the Third World countries and to foster inter-regional cooperation in the insurance and reinsurance industry.

In Buenos Aires, Argentina, the 2nd TWIC adopted Resolution No. 2 formally establishing the ASSOCIATION OF INSURERS AND REINSURERS OF DEVELOPING COUNTRIES.

In Nairobi, Kenya (June 5-11, 1982) the 3rd TWIC created a Committee to prepare the final draft of the Constitution for presentation to the 4th TWIC.

Finally, in Casablanca, Morocco, during the 4th TWIC (May 12-18, 1984) the Constitution of the ASSOCIATION OF INSURERS AND REINSURERS OF DEVELOPING COUNTRIES (AIRDC) was approved.

The Organization Policy

The Association of Insurers and Reinsurers of Developing Countries (AIRDC), a non-political, non-governmental, non-religious, and non-profit making entity was organized to develop and expand international collaboration and cooperation in the fields of insurance and reinsurance of every type.

Objectives

The Association has as its objectives to strengthen the insurance markets in developing countries and to foster inter-regional cooperation within the insurance industry.

To that end, the Association shall:

- a) Cooperate in the establishment and promotion of permanent contacts among members.
- b) Help in gathering and processing and exchanging of statistical data and of all kinds of information and experience relating to the insurance industry.
- c) Develop a program of insurance education and research on common problems of the insurance market presented by its members.
- d) Implement concrete means of technical cooperation.
- e) Encourage the development of reinsurance relations amongst developing countries or areas.
- f) Cooperate with public and private entities and with associations and regional organizations devoted to the promotion of the insurance industry in different areas of the world.
- g) In general, promote any kind of action towards the effective accomplishment of the objectives.
